

Clients

Governance Intelligence® Audits

Governance Intelligence® has an extensive range of clients across many industry and community type sectors.

At Governance Intelligence® we are committed to providing high quality and professional products and services; and ensuring their availability to our partners and clients to deliver timely and practical solutions meeting genuine business needs.

Our clients range from organisations employing a few to many 1,000s of employees across a broad range of industry segments that are located across Australasia.